Notes of vanilla & maple in our version of the Carribean classic

MAPLE AGED SPIRITS

Here's the beauty of taking a classic Carribbean liquor recipe and reinterpreting it to reflect the spirit and place of where it's distilled. You create something that tips its hat to the past but doesn't live there. And this lively spirit, made with blackstrap molasses and local maple syrup then finished in bourbon barrels for a sweet maple and vanilla taste profile definitely captures the here and now.
